

Kiwanis Tampa Club Weekly Alert

Monday, February 19, 2018

Hello Aaron,

This Week's Program...

Jeanette LaRussa Fenton with the West Tampa Redevelopment

Jeanette LaRussa Fenton is a fourth generation and lifelong resident of her beloved hometown of Tampa, Florida. She is an honors graduate of St. Joseph Catholic School and Tampa Catholic High School. She holds an Associate of Arts degree with honors from Hillsborough Community College and is a graduate of the University of South Florida, with a Bachelor of Arts degrees in Mass Communications and Sociology. She obtained her Master of Science Degree in Management from National-Louis University.

Appointed by Mayor Pam Iorio in October 2005 to lead economic development efforts in Davis Park and West Tampa, Fenton works with residents, businesses, public and private sector organizations, and potential investors to maximize the quality, pace, and positive economic impact of community revitalization initiatives.

She was appointed by Mayor Iorio in May 2004 as Director, Intergovernmental Relations. Her responsibilities included lobbying the Florida legislature on behalf of the City of Tampa and coordinating the City's state and federal legislative agenda. She previously served as Assistant Director.

Appointed by Mayor Dick A. Greco in October 1995 as the Manager of the City of Tampa Private Industry Council, she was responsible for job training services to disadvantaged youth, adults, and displaced workers, and other economic development activities, and she was instrumental in guiding the successful consolidation of City and County workforce development programs.
