

Kiwaniis Tampa Club Weekly Alert

Monday, January 7, 2018

Hello Kiwanis Club,

This Week's Program...

Cheryl Flood, Executive Director

with FL State Fair Authority

Cheryl Flood is a fifth-generation Floridian who grew up on a cattle ranch east of Lake Wales and has dedicated her career to promoting agriculture.

In September 2016, Cheryl Flood was appointed to the position of Executive Director of the Florida State Fair Authority by Florida Commissioner of Agriculture Adam H. Putnam, who oversees the Fair Authority. Prior to assuming the executive director position full time, Flood served as Interim Director of the Fair for six months. Flood has personal, as well as, professional ties to the Fair, having shown cattle at the Florida State Fair in her youth as part of the Frostproof FFA organization.

In 2002, prior to joining the Florida State Fair Authority, Flood was Assistant Director of Legislative Affairs and then became Director of External Affairs for the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services. She worked alongside Adam Putnam, acting as a liaison with the Florida State Fair.

Early in her career, Flood worked in the Florida Legislature where she served as District Director and Deputy Chief of Staff for then-Congressman Putnam.

Flood graduated from the University of Florida's Agricultural Leadership Education program with minors in Agribusiness Management and Sales, Agricultural Law and Agriculture and Natural Resources Ethics and Policy.

Cheryl is married to Edward Flood, an attorney, and has a four-year-old daughter, Alexa. She currently resides with her family in Bartow, FL.
