Hello Kiwanis Club,

This Week's Program...

Mike Suarez, Councilman

with Tampa City Council

Mike Suarez is a third generation resident of Tampa, with deep roots in West Tampa. After graduating from the University of South Florida with a Bachelors degree in Political Science and while completing work on a Master of Public Administration degree, Mike began working as an unpaid intern with Senator Bob Graham's office in Tampa. In 1993 Mike began a career as an insurance professional working in several capacities. His 23 plus years in the business have included positions as a designer of insurance products for specific industries, insurance agency owner and currently as a Vice President for Insurance Office of America (IOA), the largest privately held insurance agency in Florida

Prior to his election in 2011, Mike was involved with numerous local charities and professional organizations. Mike has been married for over 25 years to Laura Ankenbruck and they have three sons, Vincent, Anthony, and Nicholas.
